Cuban Exiles Plan Fighting March Here

Associated Press

Cuban exile sources said yesterday they are planning a march to the headquarters of the Organization of American States here when the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers begin a four-day meeting July 21.

The sources said they expect up to 5000 Cuban exiles to join the march to demonstrate their fighting spirit against Fidel Castro.

They added the march is now being organized by Cuban exiles in Miami, New York, Chicago, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other cities where there are large communities of Cubans.
